

Invitation to the Entire Series for non-Skills for Growing Families

Translate this letter into the languages spoken by your students' families. If the meetings will be conducted in languages in addition to English, or if interpreters will assist with the discussions, mention this in your letter.

Dear Families,

We have planned four special family meetings for you. The meeting topics are:

Meeting 1: Building Family Communication Skills _____

This meeting focuses on ways to strengthen communication and positive interaction among family members.

Meeting 2: Internet Safety, Social Networking Responsibilities, Cyberbullying, and Other Bullying _____

This meeting will focus on providing guidance and protection for our children as they navigate the digital society and cope with challenging social interactions.

Meeting 3: Positive Prevention—Thinking Ahead _____

The focus of this meeting is on ways families can help their children grow up healthy and free from drug-use problems.

Meeting 4: Celebrating the Family _____

The final meeting focuses on ways family members can help their children feel capable, valued, and responsible. We'll also discuss to make the most of the time spent with children.

The meetings will assist you in guiding your child to grow up self-confident, respectful, responsible, and drug-free. You'll also have an opportunity to share your ideas and concerns with other families whose children attend our school.
