

Invitation to Meeting 1 for non-Skills for Adolescence families

Dear Family,

Where does self-confidence come from? How can we help our sons and daughters become more eager to learn, tackle new tasks, and reach out to others? If you would like the answers to these questions, come to a meeting called "Helping Adolescents Build Self-confidence." This meeting will also give you a chance to talk with other parents and share the joys and concerns of raising 10- to 14-year-olds.

Here are the meeting details:

MEETING PLACE _____ DATE _____ TIME _____

In particular, we will also discuss ways we all can help to build adolescents' self-confidence. As you probably know, children who are self-confident are not only better prepared for life but also better able to resist negative pressure from peers.

We will provide child care during the meetings and refreshments afterwards, so please plan to stay. There is no charge.

Warmly,

Please fill out this form and return it by _____. We hope you can come!
